A HAPPY NEW YEAR

By MRS. GENERAL BOOTH

LOCKING out into 1921, we say from overflowing hearts to all we love, to all for whom we wish well: "A Happy New Year to You!" well: "A Happy New Year to You!"

As we use the words, there comes with them the realization that this wish of ours is but the reflection of the deaire in the heart of God, the the deaire in the heart of God, the Heavenly Father, for all His child-ren. It is for this that He has brought us into being, that we may "be giad and rejoice." It is for this reason He would save us from our size, for ain is wedded to misery, Yes, bappiness is the summing up Yes, bappiness is the summing up Yes, happiness is the summing up of God's desire for us. In God's great work, the restoration in us of His own image, in the bringing to us of His love, His peace, His holiness, is not our happiness secured?

Sometimes Overlooked

Is not this one of the aspects of Is not this one of the aspects of God's character that we sometimes overlook? And yet, if we think with sufficient distinctness, we must real-ize that happiness is included in almost all the revealed characteristics of God. God is love. Happiness belongs to love, He is the God of peace. Happiness belongs to peace. He is the God of strength and He is the God of strength and power. Happiness, as we know it in ourselves, belongs to the free exercise of our powers. Even to, God is revealed to us as having joy in His works from the very begin-ning. When He is represented as speaking to Job of the day when earth," He says, "When the morn-ing stars sang together and all the sons of God abouted for joy."

How much is said about joy and How much is said about joy and gladness as associated with His Sal-vation! "The ransomed of the Lord shall return and come to Zion, with shall return and come to zoot, with everlasting joy upon their heads; they shall obtain joy and gladness, and sorrow and sighing shall flee

So for this New Year, as we look out to its days and weeks and, months, knowing how much of fresh duty and new responsibility may come to us, let us realize that alongcome to us, let us realize that along-side all thet may be atrange and un-accustomed will lie this simple obli-gation to be happy ourselves and to do all that lies in our power to make others happy. Thus shall the image of our Heavenly Fether be perfected

My comrades of the Salvation My comrades of the saivation

Army throughout the world, I would say—Remember that this duty of happiness runs parallel with every other duty, "Yet ye shall re-joice in all that ye put your hand unto, ye and your households wherein the Lord thy God bath blessed thee."

Remember, that just as in all that goes to make up our life work on earth in temporal things we need the light, so in the life of the spirit all is to be done in the light of this holy joy. The joy of the Lord is to be our errength.

But though this happiness is to be so general, let us not be indefinite about it. It is gloriously possible that this joy may exist in the presence of those circumstances and experiences which would seem to make it impossible, even as the Apontis aid it "By bonour and dishonour, as chastened find not killed, as sorrow-fill, wet above reloidin." But do consistence and not kuled, as sorrow-ful, yet always rejoicing." But do not let us on this account fail to sim not set us on this account rail to sain definitely at producing this tres-ure in our lives and in the lives of others. We shall then say with the others. We shall then say with the prophet, "Although the fig-tree shall not blossom, neither shall fruit be in the vines; the labour of the olive shall fail; and the fields shall yield no meat; the flock shall be cut of no mest; the flock shall be cut of from the fold, and there shall be no herd in tha stalls; yet I will rejoice in the Lord, I will joy in the God on my Salvation." This was a definite desire of the Lord Jenus for Hie disciples. "Now I come to Thee, and these things I speak in the world that they might have My joy fulfilled

Joy in Redemption

A fresh light seemed to shine on A tresh light seemed to same on those words for my own heart the other day. What was this special joy of our Lord's which was to be imparted to us when He had gone to the Rother?

Was it not this?—joy in the re-demption of the world? His joy in the Salvation of sinners; His joy is to be fulfilled in us. Greater works are we to do because He went to the Father, Yes, the Holy Spirit is to possess us that we may have this same joy. Joy in the Salvation of our same joy, joy in the salvation of our own generation, Joy in bringing souls to Christ Joy in finding of sours to CDRSt. Joy in linding of those who have no joy. The joy which the angelic hosts share as they rejoice over one sinner that repentrejoice over one sinner that repent-eth! And because Ha makes this possible by His finished work of stonement, He is ablo to call us into partnership in leading souls to Him. To bring the glad tidings of Salvation, is not this the maoner in which His joy is to be fulfilled in us?

Give yourself up for a year of joymaking by bringing sinners home!

HOW TO BE SAVED

Repent and forsaile sin.

Ask God, for the sake of the Saviour who died for you, to forgive your wrong-doing and to cleaner your heart.

Go forward, watching and praying, trusting God, and growing in ing, trusting tood, and growing in grace.

Remember, the devil will try to lead you into sin again, but God is able to keep you from falling, or to restore your soul if you should in an unguarded moment give way to the enemy.

Instead of looking things in the face, he drifted from bad to worse, and became a seeker of the pleasures of the world, and for bim to go into a meeting was misery, because he was under coorietion and knew that was under coordition and knew that his place was with the Band. Ther-fore, he decided not to go to the meetings any more, but would see his sweetheart (who had remained stathful to him, and still continued to piray for him) to the Hall, and then call for her after the meeting. Our Young People's Work.

REFERENCE to another part of this issue, and to those of recent recks, will show how graciously God has been revealing Himself in an especial manner in connection with our Young People's Work. Specially convened Councils have heen conducted by the Commissioner in eight important centres within the last eight weeks, and it is not too much to say that in cach place the highest expectations have been more than realized, and the best records broken. This becomes all the more gratifying the closer one looks into the conditions suroue looks into the conditions sur-rounding the effort. In proportion as one recognizes—the important part the young man and woman of to-day is destined to play in the work of to-morrow, so will the sub-stantial victories associated with these Councils be seen in their prothese Councils be seen in their pro-per perspective. No one can contem-plate the splendid resulta achieved without feeling that the Lord has done great, things through these Councils whereof we have good reason to be glad.
